| Regulations | The French version is authoritative: ARSETS Working Equitation Regulations, ARSETS Directives and ARSETS Dressage Tests. See www.arsets.ch , Documents tab. |
| Vaccination | The secretariat will only issue the start number once it has checked that the vaccination is valid. |
| For Swiss riders | The Brevet Equestre is compulsory (except for level E). It does not have to be activated. Indicate the number or present a copy on the registration form. |

Rewards Plaque, rosette and prize for each participant.

Costumes and harness

Any official equestrian style is permitted! Consistency between costume and harness, as well as the care taken in presenting the pairing, will be particularly appreciated. All categories must wear a riding helmet in accordance with current regulations. For the dressage event, other specific headgear is authorised (e.g. top hat). See the ARSETS directive ‘Bridles and Bits’ and the ARSETS rules for dress and tack. Compliance with these rules must be observed throughout the event area.
